

LOCAL GOVERNMENT COMPENSATION

Effective January 1, 2015, local public agencies are required to post information on the annual compensation of their elected officials, officers and employees. The City of Claremont complies with this requirement by providing a link to the State Controller's "Government Compensation in California" site for accessing this information.