

CLAREMONT POLICE DEPARTMENT TRAINING

FIREARMS

GOAL:

Range attendees must show proficiency firing, reloading, de-cocking and holstering their weapons.

OBJECTIVES:

The courses of fire may include single targets, multiple targets, stationary targets and moving targets. Attendees must show proficiency in firing from the standing position, kneeling position, prone position. The attendees must show proficiency firing using strong hand support, strong hand only and support hand only.

TRAINING:

The courses of fire may include full light, low light or total darkness where a flashlight is required. The courses include malfunction drills and proper techniques.

Attendees must show proficiency in shoot and no-shoot scenarios, where verbal commands and subjects surrendering are incorporated.